“Discover How To Get From Where You Are To Where You Want To Be!”

“Learn How to Make the Transition to the Next Stage of Evolution... and Become a Universal Human.”

Dear Friend:

How often have you experienced something so deeply personal in your life that it has caused you to pause and ask yourself... Why is this happening to me ? There must be some reason... some purpose to all of this. If you are like most of us, the older you get, the more you ask these same questions repeatedly - finding it increasingly difficult to ignore your “spiritual compass”.

Fear, anxiety, stress, pain, and suffering all find their commonplace in our collective experiences. Throughout our lives, many of us search for various ways to become “spiritually awakened” - we tend to look outward toward God by praying, visiting churches, temples, and monasteries, or attempting to exercise the deep spiritual practice of all kinds. What’s missing for many of us, however, is the nurturing of our own personal awakening and the understanding that we actually can participate in creation... to become a “universal human”.

Understanding the “Separated Self-Conscious”

Since the early 1970, Barbara Marx Hubbard has been writing and teaching about this very type of “separated self-conscious” and has successfully lectured and appeared on national television, successfully educating others on the idea that humans can work together to create a world that works for everyone. A concept so powerful that in 1984, Barbara made history when her name was placed in nomination for the vice presidency of the United States.

Barbara Marx Hubbard ’s Emergence program offers an alternative path for humans - the teaching of a separate self-consciousness, or the development of a human who feels connected to the heart, to the whole of life, who is aroused vocationally, who is multidimensional in the sense that doesn’t only count on the five senses. These types of humans hold the seeds of the true salvation of our culture. By learning that we are actually responsible in some growing way for guiding the evolutionary process on this planet, we can learn a whole new set of skills, spiritually, socially, and technologically.

The Shift from Ego to Essence.

This new Emergence path of the human soul is to be awakened spiritually within, turning our experience on earth into a much deeper life purpose. This radical shift from the human ego causes us to reach out and touch others in a way that expresses self and evolves our communities and world. For millions of us, this journey of spiritual awakening, this expression of our own unique creativity for the sake of our own and the world's evolution, has dramatically changed our lives, our social interactions, and our own vision profoundly and dramatically..

The Fact Is... We Simply Aren't Living in a "Neutral Universe".

We truly live in an unprecedented time in planet Earth's evolutionary history. The human species has gained powers great enough to destroy our world or to co-create a vastly better future for all Earth life. Through science and technology, we are probing the invisible processes of creation—the atom, the gene, the brain. We are learning to place human intent into matter. We are participating in the evolution of evolution from unconscious to conscious choice, from natural selection to selection according to human purpose.

Those of us alive today are the first generation born with the choice of learning conscious, ethical evolution, or suffering devolution and the destruction of our life-support systems with unimaginably more tragedy than the world has yet experienced.

We do not have much time. Within the next 30 to 50 years, we must change our fundamental behavior to align more with our natural systems and our visions of a positive future. The human species has never had to change this quickly to survive.

Are you looking for a better road map to the "here and now" as well as a better tomorrow?

Then the Emergence program is something you need to experience!

About Barbara Marx Hubbard:

Barbara Marx Hubbard, noted author, futurist & social architect, is dedicated to understanding and communicating humanity's potential for a positive future. She is a founding member of the World Future Society, the Society for the Universal Human, and the co-founder of the Foundation for Conscious Evolution. Her books include "The Hunger of Eve, The Evolutionary Journey" and "Conscious Evolution: The Great Awakening– A Spirit-Motivated Plan of Action for the 21st Century."

The daughter of toy magnate Louis Marx, Barbara was raised in New York during its heyday. This included meeting some of the Twentieth Century's most illustrious people, such as then-President Dwight Eisenhower. She graduated from Bryn Mawr College, cum laude with a B.A. in Political Science, and studied at L'Ecole des Sciences Politique and the Sorbonne in Paris. In the 1960's, after having raised 5 children, Barbara reignited a fire that had started in her teens: she was drawn to the lure of a positive future for the Earth and its people. Barbara wanted to understand the process of personal, social, and planetary evolution.

In 1970, she co-founded the Committee for the Future in Washington, D.C. to bring positive options into the public arena for discussion and action. She also designed and co-produced twenty-five SYNCONS (synergistic convergences). These cutting-edge interactive conferences brought together a wide range of people to focus on win-win solutions for social challenges. Shortly thereafter, she created the "Theatre for the Future" a multi-media presentation of the evolutionary story of creation with a vision of a long-range human future: what it might be like if everything works!

Throughout the Seventies & Eighties, Barbara lectured, wrote, and appeared on national television, continuing to promote the idea of humans working together to create a world that works for everyone. She co-chaired and designed large Soviet-American Citizen summits, created a team-building process called "Rings of Empowerment", and developed "Evolutionary Circles", a small group process for inner work and spiritual growth focusing on the basic ideas of conscious evolution and co-creation. In 1984, Barbara made history when her name was placed in the nomination for the vice presidency of the United States.

Also in the Eighties, she hosted and co-executive produced this television series entitled "POTENTIALS", featuring an outstanding array of guests including: Ray Bradbury, Lt. Col Jim Channon, ret., Norman Cousins, Marilyn Ferguson, Buckminster Fuller Ph.D., Willis Harman Ph.D., Brugh Joy M.D., Rev. James Lawson, Dr. Timothy Leary Ph.D., Toni and John Lilly M.D., Alexandra and Robin Morton, Jerry Pournelle Ph.D., Gene Roddenberry and Senator John Vasconcellos among prominent others.
