

Introducing... A Practical & Effective Blueprint to Achieving More Wealth, Health & Happiness...

“The Power of YOU!”. A Complete Online
Multimedia Training Program Teaching You EXACTLY How to Eliminate Scarcity and Stress from Your Life FOREVER!

Dear Friend,

What do you want out of life? Is it money, health, or happiness? Perhaps you desire something so deeply personal that you've never shared it with anyone.

No matter what your biggest concern or dream is right now, just imagine if you could achieve whatever it is you've always wanted. Imagine taking control of your destiny and eliminating scarcity and stress from your life forever. Wouldn't it be great to be able to replace feelings of blame, shame, fear, or guilt with a sense of everlasting contentment and happiness? Well, YOU can. You only need a proven system that drives you forward and propels you closer to your dreams. A complete self-help system that taps into the unique Power of YOU!

My name is Scott Martineau, CEO and Co-Founder of ConsciousOne.com. My 20-year professional and personal journey to the heart of humankind's quest for success has helped build ConsciousOne.com into the internet's premiere personal growth website.

You've probably heard of the masters I've worked closely with, including Sonia Choquette, Dr. Wayne Dyer, Sylvia Browne, James Arthur Ray, Chris Howard, Arthur Joseph, Stephen Covey, Jack Canfield, Brian Tracy, Dr. Nathaniel Branden, and Dr. Ava Cadell.

Learning and working closely with only the best experts has made it clear to me that some practice and live what they preach... and those who do not.

For instance, have you ever noticed...

- Almost every book and seminar on self-help says goal setting is critical to success. Yet your own efforts at goal setting seem to help with a few things, but your BIG goals continue to go unfulfilled.*
- Most experts indicate that personal affirmations are the way to re-program your subconscious mind. Yet no matter how many times you repeat “I am happy” or “I am wealthy,” you still seem to wake up month after month with very little in the bank and a sad feeling in the pit of your stomach.*

- Many self-help experts also mention visualization. Yet most people have difficulty remembering what they had for dinner last night... let alone visualizing a lifestyle of wealth and success.

If you've ever found yourself frustrated by self-help programs offering a vision of personal growth based on short-term changes, then you really need to experience The Power of YOU! course and program. Unlike other self-help courses, The Power of YOU! online multimedia course provides a complete blueprint to achieving balance, happiness, and success in your entire life. And, unlike many other self-help programs on the market, The Power of YOU! training method is entirely dedicated to showing you how to create sustainable, long-term change in your life.

By Carefully Integrating Visual and Audio Presentations The Power of YOU! Multimedia Program Allows You to Harness Your Own Personal Power for Wealth, Health, and Happiness!
